

A-TRAC Symposium 2011

AH&MRC – Tobacco Resistance and Control

21 – 23 JUNE 2011

Holiday Inn, Sydney Airport

AIMS & OBJECTIVES:

- Provide an arena for NSW ACCHSs to showcase their achievements in tobacco resistance and control.
- Offer an opportunity to network and collaborate.
- Present opportunities for up-skilling in tobacco resistance and control.
- Promote best practices in Aboriginal tobacco resistance and control.
- Strengthen the Aboriginal Tobacco Resistance Network.

TOPICS/THEMES:

- Tobacco and Aboriginal Health Workers
- Smoking and Youth
- Using Social Media
- Smoking and Pregnancy
- Tackling Tobacco – Leading the Resistance

WHO SHOULD GO?

- Tobacco Action Workers and Regional Coordinators
- NSW ACCHS Staff interested in tobacco
- Staff from organisations currently working collaboratively with, or looking to work collaboratively with their local ACCHS.

Registrations open soon. For further information about the symposium please contact Jasmine Sarin (Snr Tobacco Resistance and Control Officer) jsarin@ahmrc.org.au or Kim Merritt (Administration Officer) kmerritt@ahmrc.org.au or call on (02) 92124777